

Bob Mover

Jazz Improvisation Workshop

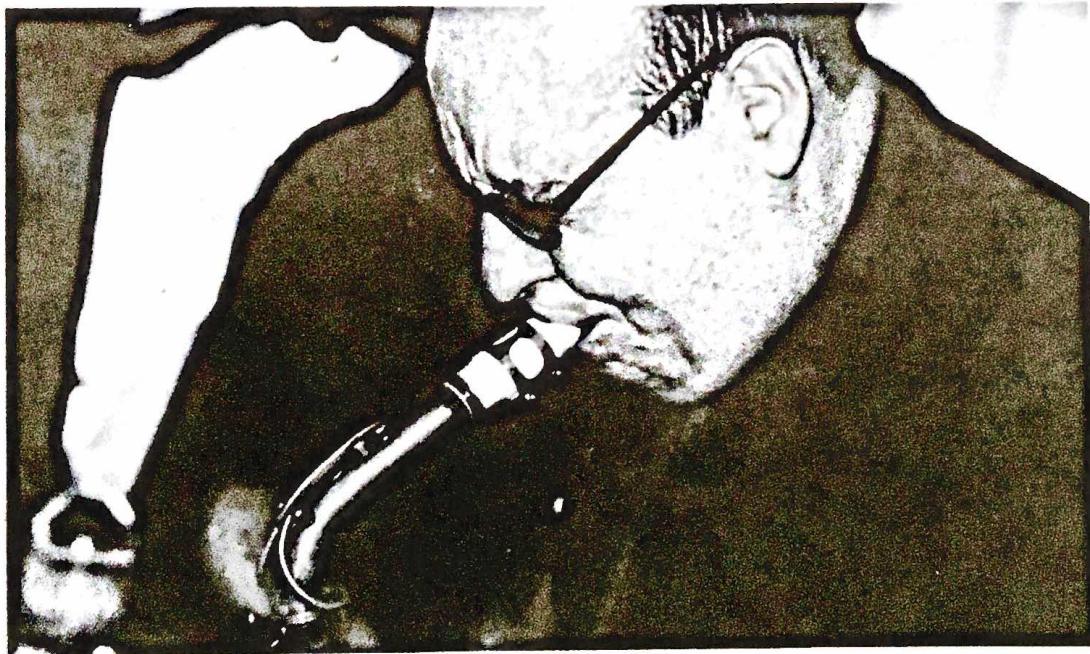

Accepting intermediate/advanced students on all instruments.

Bob Mover's workshops provide the student with inspiring, practical and useful practice and performance techniques. For over thirty years Bob has been noted jazz educator giving private lessons and master classes worldwide.

- Learning to improvise by understanding the elements that make up creative jazz improvisation.
- Learning (not just memorizing) jazz repertoire.
- Exploring "functional harmony", "voice leading" chord substitution and spontaneous re-harmonization.
- Developing ideas using motifs and sequences.
- Limit of ten students per class to assure proper attention to all who participate.

"People are always amazed when they hear him play" Chet Baker

"Bob is a wonderful musician- one of the great alto players who in recent years has become a real tenor player as well." Michael Brecker
